(a) enter into contracts;

(b) charge fees for its services;

(c) make regulations for the conferment of charter; and

(d) make penal regulations.

(2) The Institute has the power to award honorary membership of the Institute to persons it deems worthy of such honour on terms and conditions prescribed by the Council and approved by the Institute in a general meeting.

(1) There is established for the Institute a Governing Council (in this Act referred to as “the Council”) charged with the administration and management of the Institute, whose membership consists of -

(a) the President, elected by Council members amongst themselves;

(b) the Vice-President, elected by Council members amongst themselves;

(c) two persons appointed by the Minister;

(d) 6 persons elected by the Institute; and

(e) an immediate past President of the Institute who is entitled to serve for a further maximum term of three years from the expiration of his tenure as President.

(2) The President and the Vice-President shall hold office for a term of two years from the date of their elections.

(3) The President shall preside at meetings of the Council, and in his absence, the Vice-President shall preside.

(4) The provisions set out in the Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to operation, qualification, tenure of office of members of the Council and other matters mentioned in it.
PART II — APPOINTMENT OF REGISTRAR AND PREPARATION OF REGISTER.

(1) The Council shall appoint the Registrar who shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute.

(2) A person appointed as the Registrar shall have served the Institute for a period of at least two years preceding the date of his appointment.

(3) The Registrar shall prepare and maintain, in accordance with the rules and regulations made by the Council, a register of—

(a) names,

(b) addresses,

(c) approved qualifications, and

(d) other particulars,

of all persons who are entitled to be enrolled as fellows, members, associates or registered students and who, in the manner prescribed by such rules, apply to be so registered.

(1) The Registrar shall be the Secretary to the Council and shall keep minutes of proceedings at all meetings of the Council.

(2) The Registrar shall—

(a) in accordance with the directions of the Council, correct any entry in the register which the Council directs him to correct as being, in the opinion of the Council, an entry which was incorrectly made;

PART V — PROFESSIONAL DISCIPLINE

13. (1) There is established an Investigating Panel (in this Act referred to as "the Panel") consisting of three members and two non-members of the Council who shall be appointed by the Council charged with the duty of—

(a) conducting preliminary investigation into allegations that a registered member has misconducted himself in his capacity as a registered member; and

(b) deciding whether the allegations should be referred to the Disciplinary Committee or not.

4. There is established a Disciplinary Committee (in this Act referred to as "the Committee") consisting of seven members one of whom shall be the Chairman appointed by the Council, charged with the duty of investigating and determining any case referred to it by the Panel.

5. (1) Where—

(a) a registered person is adjudged by the Committee to be guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect,

(b) a registered person is convicted in Nigeria or elsewhere by any court of competent jurisdiction, or

(c) the Committee determines that the name of any person has been fraudulently registered, the Committee may give a direction reprimanding that person or ordering the Registrar to strike the person’s name out of the relevant part of the Register.

(2) The Committee may defer or further defer its decision as to the giving of a direction under subsection (1) until a subsequent meeting of the Committee.

(3) The Committee may not defer its decision under subsection (2) for a period exceeding one year.
(4) When the Committee gives a direction under subsection (1), the Committee shall cause notice of the direction to be served on the person to whom it relates.

(5) The person to whom a direction under subsection (1) relates may, at any time within 28 days from the date of service on him, appeal against the direction to the Federal High Court.

(6) A person whose name is removed from the register under a direction of the Committee may not be registered again except under a direction in that respect given by the Committee on the application of that person.

(7) A direction for the removal of a person's name from the register may prohibit an application under subsection (1) of this section by that person until the expiration of such period from the date of the direction.

PART VI — OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

6. (1) A person commits an offence who —

   (a) holds himself out as a Chartered Local Government and Public Administrator; or

   (b) willfully makes falsification in any matter relating to the register.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable on —

   (a) summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding N1,000; or

   (b) conviction on indictment, to a fine not exceeding N5,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years or both.

7. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other enactment, no suit shall lie or be instituted in any court against the Institute, a member or any employee of the Institute for any act done in pursuance or execution of any enactment or law, or of any public duty or authority, or in respect of an alleged negligence or default in the execution of such enactment or law, duty or authority, unless it is commenced within 12 months next after the act or neglect complained of or in the case of a continuing damage or injury, within 12 months next after the ceasing of damage or injury.

(2) No suit shall be commenced against the Institute before the expiration of a period of one month notice of intention to commence the suit shall have been served upon the Institute by the intending plaintiff or his authorised agent and the notice shall clearly state —

   (a) the cause of action;

   (b) the particulars of the claim;
(c) the name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff; and

(d) the relief which he claims.

(3) The notice referred to in subsections (1) and (2) and any summons, notice or other document required or authorised to be served upon the Institute under the provisions of this Act or any other enactment or law may be served by delivering the same to the President, Chairman, Council or the Registrar of the Institute or by sending it by registered post to the principal office of the Institute.

8. In this Act —

Interpretation.

Institute" means the Institute of Chartered Local Government and Public Administration established under section 1 (1) of this Act;

Minister" means the Minister charged with the responsibility of matters relating to education; registered" means enrolled.

9. This Act may be cited as the Chartered Institute of Local Government and Public Administration of Nigeria Act, 2017.
SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Subject to this Act and section 27 of the Interpretation Act (which provides for decision of a statutory body to be taken by a majority of its members, and for the President to have a second or casting votes) the Council may make standing orders regulating its proceedings and that of any Committee.

If, at any time, the office of the President is vacant or the President is, in the opinion of the Council, permanently or temporarily unable to perform the functions of his office, the Council may appoint one of its members to perform such functions and reference in this Schedule to the President shall be construed accordingly.

Every meeting of the Council shall be presided over by the President and, where he is unable to attend a particular meeting, the Vice-President shall preside and, in the event where both the President and Vice-President are absent, the members present at the meeting shall elect one of them to preside at the meeting.

The quorum at a meeting of the Council shall be the President or, in the appropriate case, the person presiding at the meeting and six other members.

Where, upon any special occasion, the Council desires to obtain the advice of any person, it may co-opt that person to be a member for as many meetings as may be necessary, and that person, while so co-opted, shall have all the rights and privileges of a member, except that he is not entitled to vote or count towards a quorum.

Committee

(1) Subject to its standing orders, the Council may set up such number of standing or ad-hoc committees as it deems fit to consider and report on any matter with which the Council is concerned.

(2) Every Committee set-up under subparagraph (1) shall be presided over by a member of the Council and shall be made up of a number of persons, not necessarily members of the Council as the Council, may determine in each case.

The decision of the Committee shall have no effect until it is confirmed by the Council.

Miscellaneous

The fixing of the seal of the Council shall be authenticated by the signature of the President and Registrar of the Institute.

A contract or instrument, which if made by a person not being a body corporate would not be required to be made under seal, may be made or executed on behalf of the Institute by the Registrar or any other person generally or specifically authorised by the Council to act for that purpose.
10. Any document purporting to be a contract, instrument or other document signed or sealed on behalf of the Institute shall be received in evidence and, unless the contract is proved, be presumed, without further proof, to have been so signed or sealed.

11. The validity of any proceeding of the Council or a committee shall not be adversely affected by -

   (a) any vacancy in the membership of the Council;

   (b) any defect in the appointment of a member of the Council or committee; or

   (c) reason that a person not entitled to do so took part in the proceedings.

2. Any member of the Council or committee who has a personal interest in any contract or arrangement entered into or proposed to be considered by the Council or committee shall disclose his interest to the Council or committee and shall not vote on any question relating to the contract or arrangement.
