THE SENATE

Notes with grief the inhuman abduction of secondary school girls in Chibok, Borno State by alleged Boko Haram terrorists;

Notes also that, just when the country was nursing its grief caused by the rush hour bombing of a bus park in the nation's capital, Abuja, which killed over 75 people and wounded dozens more, the country was struck yet with another devastating blow: the abduction of about 234 girls from their school in Chibok on 15th April, 2014.

PRINTED BY NATIONAL ASSEMBLY PRESS, ABUJA

Notes that on the 15th April 2014, the Government Girls Secondary School in Chibok, Borno State was attacked when militants broke into the school, shooting the guards and abducting a large number of students in trucks into the Sambisa forest, a known hideout for the Boko Haram Sect;

Aware that prior to the attack and abduction, the school was closed down for four weeks due to the deteriorating security situation in the state but were only recalled to take their final exams in Physics;

Disappointed that two (2) weeks after their disappearance, the girls whereabout are still unknown. And about 44 escaped by jumping from the back of the truck used to ferry them away or by sneaking out of the abductor's camp deep inside the Sambisa forest.

Observes also that besides the uncertainty as to the whereabouts and fate of these innocent girls, whose only crime was to go to school, is the lack of authentic information from the school authorities, the security agencies and their parents as to the exact number of girls that were abducted and the processes leading to same;

Hopeful that the offer of assistance by Governments of the United States of America and the United Kingdom to rescue the students would come with all the required technology including the deployment of the drones which the United States had used to great positive effect in tracking/fighting terrorism elsewhere;

Afraid that time is fast running out on the rescue of these girls as their captors may break them into various hide-outs:

Accordingly resolves to:

1. Urge the Federal Government and all Security Agencies to intensify efforts at immediate rescue of the abducted students of Federal Government Girls Secondary School, Chibok, Borno State.

2. Urge the Federal Government and the Security Agencies to seek the Co-operation and aid of other countries and the International Security Institutions to deploy advanced technological measures including dialogue towards rescuing the adopted children safely.

3. Mandate the joint Committees on Defence and Army, National Security and Education to investigate the circumstances leading to the abduction of the school children, effort made thus for by the different tiers of Government among others and make recommendations to the Senate within one (1) week.

4. Pray for the safe release of ALL the abducted children.

5. Urge the Government at all levels to provide adequate security for schools in their Areas.
