ORDERS OF THE DAY

MOTION

1. Urgent Need for the Federal Ministry of Education to Erect or Repair Parameter Fences in all Federal Government Secondary Schools in Nigeria:
Hon. Evelyn Omavowan Oboro:

The House:

Notes that there are Federal Government Secondary Schools that do not have parameter fences in present day Nigeria;

PRINTED BY NATIONAL ASSEMBLY PRESS, ABUJA

Concerned about the danger, the absence of parameter fences poses to the innocent students of those schools;

Recalls a report in the Daily Champion Newspaper of October 27, 2011, where hoodlums forced their way into the hostel of St Anne's Secondary School, Molete, Ibadan, Oyo State, at about 2.00 a.m. and raped four (4) young female students to the point of coma;

Also recalls another report in the Daily Trust Newspaper of October 13, 2012 which was titled, "Armed Robbers Attack Girls' School in Kano";

Disturbed by the pervasive nature of the absence of fences around these Public Secondary Schools, especially those located in the rural areas;

Also disturbed that many of those Schools lack potable water in the premises, which forces the students to wonder in search of water, and are thereby exposed to risk of not only harassment from people but also to dangerous reptiles, as was the case with Government Secondary School, Lugbe, Abuja;

Resolves to:

(i) Mandate the Committee on Education to carry out an appraisal of all Federal Government Secondary Schools to ascertain those that do not have parameter fences around their premises;

(ii) Also mandate the Committee to liaise with the Federal Ministry of Education to ensure the repair or construction of parameter fences in those Schools.
