terms and conditions attaching thereto; (j) enter into contracts, establish trusts, act as trustee, solely or jointly with any other person, and employ and act through agents; (k) erect, provide, equip and maintain libraries, laboratories, lecture halls, halls of residence, refectories, sports grounds, playing fields and other buildings or things necessary, suitable or convenient for any of the objects of the University; (l) hold public lectures and undertake printing, publishing and book selling; (m) subject to any limitations or conditions imposed by Statute, to invest any moneys appertaining to the University by law of endorsement, whether for general or special purposes, and such other moneys as may not be immediately required for current expenditure, in any investments or securities or in the purchase or improvement of land, with power from time to time to vary any such investments and to deposit any moneys for the time being un-invested with any bank on deposit or current account; (n) borrow, whether on interest or not, and if need be, upon the security of any or all of the property movable or immovable of the University, such moneys as the Council may from time to time in its discretion find necessary or expedient to borrow or to guarantee any loan, advances or credit facilities; (o) make gifts for any charitable purpose; (p) do anything which it is authorized or required by this Act or by any other Statute to do; and (q) do all such acts or things, whether or not incidental to the foregoing powers, as may advance the objects of the University. (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the Statutes made thereunder and without prejudice to Section 9 (2) of this Act, the powers conferred on the University by subsection (1) of this section shall be exercisable on behalf of the University by the Council or by the Senate or in any other manner which may be authorized by this Act.
5. Functions of the Chancellor and Pro-Chancellor: (1) The Chancellor shall in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University, and when he is present shall preside at all meetings of convocation held for conferring degrees. (2) The Pro-Chancellor shall, in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University except the Chancellor, and except for the Vice Chancellor when acting as Chairman of Congregation or Convocation, and the Pro-Chancellor shall when he is present, be the Chairman at all meetings of the Council.	Retained as in the Bill.
6. Establishment and Composition of Council: (1) There shall be a Council for the University consisting of: (a) the Pro-Chancellor; (b) the Vice-Chancellor; (c) the Deputy Vice-Chancellor(s); (d) one person from the Federal Ministry responsible for Education; (e) four persons representing a variety of interest and broadly representative of the whole Federation; (f) four persons appointed by the Senate from among its members; (g) two persons appointed by the congregation from among its members; and (h) one person appointed by Convocation from among its members. (2) Persons to be appointed to the Council shall be persons of proven integrity, knowledgeable and familiar with the affairs and tradition of the University.	Retained as in the Bill.

7. Functions of the Council and its Finance and General Purpose: (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act relating to the Visitor, the Council shall be the Governing Body of the University and shall be charged with the general control and superintendence of the policy, finances and property of the University, including its public relations. (2) There shall be a committee of the Council to be known as the Finance and General Purposes Committee, which shall, subject to the directions of the Council, exercise control over the property and expenditure of the Council as the Council may from time to time delegate to it. (3) Provision shall be made by Statute with respect to the constitution of the Finance and General Purposes Committee. (4) The Council shall ensure proper accounts of the University are kept and that the accounts of the University are audited annually by auditors appointed by the Council from the list and in accordance with guidelines supplied by the Auditor-General of the Federation, and that an annual report is published by the University together with certified copies of the said accounts as audited. (5) Subject to this Act and the Statutes, the Council and the Finance and General Purposes Committee may each make rules for the purpose of exercising any of their respective functions or of regulating their own procedure. (6) Rules made under subsection (5) of this section by the Finance and General Purposes Committee shall not come into force unless approved by the Council, and where any rule so made by the Committee conflict with any directions given by the Council (whether before or after the coming into force of the rules in question), the direction of the Council shall prevail. (7) There shall be paid to the members of the Council, the Finance and General Purposes Committee and of any other committee set up by the Council, allowances in respect of travelling and other reasonable expenses, at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by extant government circulars. (8) The Council shall meet as and when necessary for the performance of its functions under this Act, and shall meet at least four times every year. (9) If required in writing by any five members of the Council, the Chairman shall within twenty-eight days after the receipt of such request call a meeting of the Council: PROVIDED that if after 28 days of the receipt or delivering to him of such request, the chairman fails or neglects to call a meeting, the Registrar shall within 14 days thereof, cause a meeting of the Council to be convened for that purpose. The request shall specify the business to be considered at the meeting and no business not so specified shall be transacted at that meeting.	Retained as in the Bill.
8. Functions of the Senate: (1) Subject to section 5 of this Act and subsections (3) and (4) of this section and to the provisions of this Act relating to the Visitor, it shall be the general function of the Senate to organize and control teaching in the University, admission to Postgraduate courses and other admission of students, the discipline of students and to promote research in the University. (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, it shall in particular be the function of the Senate to make provision for the: (a) establishment, organization and control of campuses, colleges, faculties, departments, schools, institutes and other teaching and research units of the University, and the allocation of responsibility for different branches of learning; (b) organization and control of courses of study in the University and of the examinations held in conjunction with those courses, including the appointment of examiners, both internal and external;	Retained as in the Bill.

(c) award of degrees, and such other qualifications as may be prescribed, in connection with examinations conducted by the University; (d) making of recommendations to the Council with respect to the award to any person of an honorary fellowship or honorary degree or the title of professor emeritus; (e) establishment, organization and control of halls of residence and similar institutions in the University; (f) supervision of the welfare of students in the University and the regulation of their conduct; (g) granting of fellowships, scholarships, prizes and similar awards in so far as the awards are within the control of the University; and (h) determination of what description of dress shall be academic dress for the purposes of the University, and regulating the use of academic dress. (3) The Senate shall not establish any new campus, college, faculty, department, school, institute or other teaching and research units of the University, or any hall of residence or similar institution at the University without the approval of the Council. (4) (a) Subject to this Act and the Statutes, the Senate may make regulations for the purpose of exercising any function conferred on it either by the provisions of this section or for the purpose of providing for any matter for which provision by regulation is authorized or required by this Act or by Statute; (b) The Senate shall, by regulation, provide that at least one of the persons appointed as examiners at each final or professional examination held in conjunction with any course of study in the University is not a teacher at the University but is a teacher at the branch of learning to which the course relates in some other university of high repute. (5) Subject to a right of appeal to the Council from a decision of the Senate under this subsection, the Senate may deprive any person of any degree, diploma or other award of the University which has been conferred on him if after due enquiry he is shown to have been guilty of any dishonourable or scandalous conduct in gaining admission into the University or obtaining that award.
9. Functions of the Vice-Chancellor: (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall, in relation to the University, take precedence before all other members of the University except the Chancellor and, subject to section 5 of this Act, the Pro-Chancellor and any other person for the time being acting as Chairman of the Council. (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Vice-Chancellor shall have general function, in addition to any other functions conferred on him by this Act or otherwise, of directing the activities of the University, and shall to the exclusion of any other person or authority be the chief executive and academic officer of the University and ex-officio Chairman of the Senate.	Retained as in the Bill.
PART II - TRANSFER OF PROPERTY
10. Transfer of Property to the University: (1) All property held by or on behalf of the Provisional Council shall, by virtue of this subsection and without further assurance, vest in the University and be held by it for the purpose of the University. (2) The provisions of the Second Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the transfer of property by this section and to matters arising there from and with respect to other matters mentioned in that Schedule.	Retained as in the Bill.

PART III - STATUTES OF THE UNIVERSITY

11. Power of the University to make Statutes: (1) Subject to this Act, the University may make Statutes for any of the following purposes: (a) making provision with respect to the composition and constitution of any authority of the University; (b) specifying and regulating the powers and duties of any authority of the University, and regulating any other matter connected with the University or any of its authorities; (c) regulating the admission of students where it is done by the University, and their discipline and welfare; (d) determining whether any particular matter is to be treated as an academic or non-academic matter for the purposes of this Act and of any Statute, regulation or other instrument made there-under; and (e) making provision for other matters for which provision by Statute is authorized or required by this Act. (2) Subject to section 25 (6) of this Act, the Interpretation Act shall apply in relation to any Statute made under this section as it applies to a subsidiary instrument within the meaning of section 27 (1) of that Act. (3) The Statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to have come into force on the commencement of this Act and shall be deemed to have been made under this section by the University. (4) The power to make Statute conferred by this section shall not be prejudiced or limited in any way by reason of the inclusion or omission of any matter in or from the Statute contained in the Third Schedule to this Act or any subsequent Statute.	Retained as in the Bill.
12. Mode of exercising the power to make Statutes: (1) The power of the University to make Statutes shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this section. (2) A proposed Statute shall not have the force of law until it has been approved at a meeting of the: (a) Senate, by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting; and (b) Council by the votes of not less than two thirds of the members present and voting. (3) A proposed Statute may originate either in the Senate or Council, and may be approved as required by subsection (2) of this section by both bodies in no particular order. (4) A Statute which: (a) makes provision for or alters the composition or constitution of the Council, the Senate or any other authority of the University; or (b) provides for the establishment of a new campus or college or for the amendment or revocation of any Statute whereby a campus or college is established; shall not come into operation unless it has been approved by the Visitor. (5) For the purpose of section 2 (2) of the Interpretation Act, a Statute shall be treated as being made on the date on which it is approved by the Council and the Senate in accordance with subsection (3) of this section or in the case of a Statute falling within subsection (4) of this section, on the date on which it is approved by the President.	Retained as in the Bill.
13. Proof of Statute: A Statute may be proved in any court by the production of a copy thereof bearing or having affixed to it a certificate signed by the Vice-Chancellor or the Registrar to the effect that the copy is a true copy of a Statute of that University.	Retained as in the Bill.

14. Power to decide the meaning of Statute: (1) In the event of any doubt or dispute arising at any time as to the meaning of any provision of a Statute, the matter may be referred to the Visitor, who shall take such advice and make such decision thereon as he deems fit. (2) The decision of the Visitor on any matter referred to him under this section shall be binding upon the authorities, staff and students of that University and where any question as to the meaning of any provision of a statute has been decided by the Visitor under this section, no question as to the meaning of that provision shall be entertained by any other authority in Nigeria: PROVIDED that nothing in this subsection shall affect the power of a court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether any provision of a statute is wholly or partly void as being ultra vires or as being inconsistent with the Constitution. (3) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply in relation to any doubt or dispute as to whether any matter is, for the purposes of this Act, academic or a non-academic matter as they apply in relation to any such doubt or dispute as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, and accordingly the reference in subsection (2) of this section to any question as to the meaning of any provision of a statute shall include references to any question as to whether any matter is for the said purposes an academic or non-academic matter.	Retained as in the Bill.
PART IV - SUPERVISION AND DISCIPLINE
15. The Visitor: (1) The President shall be the Visitor of the University. (2) The Visitor shall as often as the circumstances may require, not being less than once every five years, conduct a visitation of the University or direct that such a visitation be conducted by such persons as the Visitor may deem fit and in respect of any of the affairs of the University. (3) It shall be the duty of the bodies and persons comprising the University to: (a) make available to the Visitor, and to any other persons conducting a visitation in pursuance of this section, such facilities and assistance as he or they may reasonably require for the purpose of the visitation; and (b) give effect to any instructions consistent with the provisions of this Act which may be given by the Visitor in consequence of the visitation.	Retained as in the Bill.
16. Removal of certain Members of the Council: (1) If it appears to the Council that a member (other than the Pro-Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor) should be removed from office on grounds of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office, the Council shall make a recommendation to that effect through the Minister to the Federal Executive Council and if the Federal Executive Council, after making such enquiries (if any) as may be considered necessary, approves the recommendation it may direct the removal of the member from office. (2) It shall be the duty of the Minister to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument embodying a direction under subsection (1) of this section to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.	Retained as in the Bill.
17. Removal and discipline of Academic, Administrative and Professional Staff: (1) If it appears to the Council that there are reasons for believing that any person employed as a member of the academic, administrative or professional staff of the University, other than the Vice-Chancellor, should be removed from office or on grounds of misconduct or inability to perform the functions of his office Council shall: (a) give notice of those reasons to the person in question;	Retained as in the Bill.

| (b) afford such person an opportunity of making representation in person on the matter to the Council; and (c) take a decision to terminate or not to terminate the appointment. (2) If the affected staff or any three members of the Council so request within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the notice of the Council's decision, the Council shall make arrangements for- (a) a joint committee of the Council and the Senate to review the matter and to report on it to the Council; (b) the person in question to be afforded an opportunity to appear before and be heard by an investigating committee with respect to the matter; and if the Council after considering the report of the investigating committee, is satisfied that the person in question should be removed, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directions of the Council. (3) The Vice-Chancellor may, in a case of gross misconduct by a member of staff which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor is prejudicial to the interest of the University, suspend such member and any such suspension shall immediately be reported to the Council. (4) Any member of staff may be suspended from duty or his appointment may be terminated by Council for a good cause and for the purposes of this subsection "good cause" means- (a) conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office; (b) any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice, considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold office; (c) conduct of a scandalous or disgraceful nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold office; or (d) conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the functions of his office or to comply with the terms and conditions of his service. (5) Any person suspended pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall be on half pay and the Council shall before the expiration of a period of three months from the date of such suspension consider the case against that person and come to a decision as to whether to- (a) continue such person's suspension and if so on what terms (including the proportion of his emoluments to be paid to him); (b) reinstate such person in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments with effect from the date of suspension; (c) terminate the appointment of the person concerned in which case such a person will not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension; or (d) take such lesser disciplinary action against such person (including the restoration of such proportion of his emoluments that might have been withheld) as the Council may determine. (6) Where the Council, pursuant to this section, decides to continue a person's suspension or decides to take further disciplinary action against the person, the Council shall, before the expiration of three months from such decision come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning such a person. (7) It shall be the duty of the person by whom an instrument of removal is signed in pursuance of subsection (1) above to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates. | | |

(8) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of staff and workers of the University as may be appropriate.
18. Removal of Examiners: (1) If, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, it appears to the Senate that a person appointed as an examiner for any examination of the University ought to be removed from his office or appointment, then, the Senate may, after affording the examiner an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter, direct the Vice-Chancellor to remove the examiner by an instrument in writing signed by the Registrar. (2) Subject to the provisions of any regulation made pursuant to section 8 (4) of this Act, the Vice-Chancellor may, on the recommendation of Senate, appoint an appropriate person as examiner in the place of the examiner removed. (3) It shall be the duty of the Registrar on signing an instrument of removal pursuant to this section, to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served as soon as reasonably practicable on the person to whom it relates.	Retained as in the Bill.
19. Discipline of Students: (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that any student is guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may, without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by Statute or regulations, direct that the: (a) student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the University or make use of such facilities of the University as may be so specified; (b) activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified; (c) student be rusticated for such period as may be specified in the direction; or (d) that the student be expelled from the University. (2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1) paragraphs (c) or (d) of this section in respect of any student, the student may, within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal against the direction to the Senate. (3) Where an appeal is brought pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the Senate shall, after causing such inquiry to be made in the matter as the Senate considers just, either confirm or set aside the direction or modify it in such manner as the Senate thinks fit. (4) The fact that an appeal from a direction is brought pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall not affect the operation of the direction while the appeal is pending. (5) The Vice-Chancellor may delegate his powers under this section to a disciplinary board consisting of such members of the University as he may nominate. (6) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of a student's activities at the University for conduct which in the opinion of Senate is prejudicial to the interest of the University or to its corporate objective or image. (7) A direction under subsection (1) (a) of this section may be combined with a direction under subsection (1) (b) of this section.	Retained as in the Bill.
PART V - MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS
20. Exclusion or discrimination on account of race, religion, etc: (1) No person shall be required to satisfy requirements as to any of the following matters, that is to say, race (including ethnic grouping) sex, place of birth, family origin, religious or political persuasion, as a condition for becoming or continuing to be a: (a) student in the University;	Retained as in the Bill.

(b) holder of any degree, appointment or employment in the University; or (c) member of any body established by virtue of this Act. (2) No person shall be subjected to any disadvantage or accorded any advantage in relation to the University by reference to any of the matters referred to in subsection (1) of this section. (3) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed as preventing the University from imposing any disability or restriction on any of the persons specified in subsection (1) of this section where such persons wilfully refuse or fail on grounds of religious belief to undertake any duty generally and uniformly imposed on all such persons or any group of them which duty, having regard to its nature and the special circumstances, is in the opinion of the University reasonably justifiable in the national interest.
21. Transfer of land to the University: (1) For the purpose of the Land Use Act (which provides for the compulsory acquisition of land for public purposes) any purpose of the University shall be the same as that of the Federation. (2) Where an estate or interest in land is acquired by the Government pursuant to this section, the Government may, by a certificate under the hand and seal of the Chief Federal Lands Officer or any other person authorized in that behalf transfer it to the University.	Retained as in the Bill.
22. Restriction on disposal of land by University: Without prejudice to the provisions of the Land Use Act, the University shall not dispose of or charge any land or an interest in any land (including any land transferred to the University by this Act) except with the prior written consent, either general or special, of the Visitor: PROVIDED that such consent shall not be required in the case of any lease or tenancy at a rack-rent for a term not exceeding twenty-one years of any lease or tenancy to a member of the University for residential purpose.	Retained as in the Bill.
23. Quorum and procedure of bodies established by this Act: Except as may be otherwise provided by Statute or by Regulation, the quorum and procedure of any body of persons established by this Act shall be such as may be determined by that body.	Retained as in the Bill.
24. Appointment of Committees, etc: (1) Anybody of persons established by this Act shall, without prejudice to the generality of the powers of that body, have power to appoint committees, which need not consist exclusively of members of that body and authorize a committee established by it to: (a) exercise on its behalf, such of its functions as it may determine; and (b) co-opt members and direct whether or not co-opted members shall be entitled to vote in that committee. (2) Any two or more such bodies may arrange for the holding of joint meetings of those bodies or for the appointment of committees consisting of members of those bodies, for the purpose of considering any matter within the competence of those bodies or any of them and either dealing with it or of reporting on it to those bodies or any of them. (3) Except as may be otherwise provided by Statute or Regulations, the quorum and procedure of a committee established or meeting held pursuant to this section shall be such as may be determined by the body or bodies which have decided to establish the committee or hold the meeting. (4) The Pro-Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor shall be members of every committee of which the members are wholly or partly appointed by the Council, (other than a committee appointed to inquire into the conduct of the officer in question) and the Vice-

Chancellor shall be a member of every committee of which the members are wholly or partly appointed by the Senate. (5) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall be construed as enabling: (a) statutes to be made otherwise than in accordance with section 11 of this Act; or (b) the Senate to empower any other body to make Regulations or to award degrees or other qualifications. 25. Miscellaneous Administrative provisions: (1) The seal of the University shall be such as may be determined by the Council and approved by the Chancellor and the affixing of the seal shall: (a) in the case of certificates issued by the University, be authenticated by the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar; and (b) in the case of any other document, be authenticated by any member of Council, the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar or any other person authorized by Statute. (2) Any document purporting to be a document executed under the seal of the University shall be received in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be so executed. (3) Any contract or instrument which, if made or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not be required to be under seal, may be made or executed on behalf of the University by any person generally or specially authorized to do so by the Council without seal.
