3. Personal Explanation:

Rising on Rule 43, Senator Sam O. Egwu (Ebonyi North) drew the attention of the Senate to the Ad hoc Committee on Alleged Assault by Senator Elisha C. Isiaku constituted on 3rd July, 2019, with the mandate to report within two (2) weeks. He stated that the Committee have invited Senator Elisha C. Isiaku; the Federal Capital Territory (FCT) Commissioner of Police; victim's lawyer; shop owner; and the lady involved for investigation. He therefore requested for one (1) week extension from the Senate to enable the Committee complete its assignment.

By the leave of the Senate, one (1) week request was granted.

4. Matter of Urgent Public Importance:

Rising on Rule 42, Senator Rose O. Oko (Cross River North) drew the attention of the Senate to the activities of Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC) regarding refineries operations over the years. She stated that series of approval were granted by the Federal Government to Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC) on turn around maintenance and repairs of the nation's refineries without positive result. She sought and obtained the leave of the Senate to present the matter the next Legislative Day.

Matter to stand over to the next Legislative Day [Rule 42(2)].

5. Matter of Urgent Public Importance:

Rising on Rules 42 and 52, Senator Istifanus D. Gyang (Plateau North) drew the attention of the Senate to the multiple tragedies in Jos metropolis from flooding to building collapse. He sought and obtained the leave of the Senate to present the matter forthwith:

The Senate:

notes with grieve the fatalities that occurred in Jos the Plateau State capital following twin tragedies of flooding and building collapse resulting in dead of 15 persons, three from the flooding and twelve from the building collapse;

further notes that the flooding disaster occurred at Zinariya axis, a shanty settlement of Jos town following a heavy downpour which swept off a number of houses leaving three persons dead;

equally notes that few days after the tragic flooding, Jos town was again visited by another tragedy following the collapse of a three storey building resulting in ten fatalities with several others sustaining varying degrees of injuries and are now receiving medical attention in hospital;

concerned that building collapse is becoming a recurring incidence across the nation due obviously to non-adherence to standards and in some instances compromise by the regulatory agencies; and further concerned that the preparedness of first responder agencies in emergency management and in particular, National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA), is still weak in terms of equipment and promptness.

Accordingly resolves to:

- (i) urge all regulatory agencies in the building and construction industry to enforce the stipulated standards by all property developers;
- (ii) urge National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) to update its capacity for prompt and effective response in times of emergency;
- (iii) urge National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) to administer relief materials to the affected families; and
- (iv) observe one minute silence in honor of the deceased persons.
