SECOND SESSION
NO. 5

COMMITTEE ON TERTIARY INSTITUTIONS AND TETFUND

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A BILL FOR AN ACT TO AMEND THE
NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY ACT,
CAP N6 LFN, 1983 (AMENDMENT)

BILL, 2017

(SB. 066).

3RD MAY, 2017

A REPORT ON THE NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY ACT CAP NO. 6, LFN, 1983
(AMENDMENT) BILL, 2016 (SB. 066)

1.0 INTRODUCTION:

The Senate, at its sitting on Wednesday, 20th November, 2016, deliberated on the general principles of the NOUN Act Amendment Bill 2016. During the debate, Senators commended the sponsor of the Bill for coming up with the proposed legislation at this time, as it seeks to address issues relating to opening access for our teeming youth and adult working population to fulfil their dream of acquiring tertiary education. After extensive debate on the general principles of the Bill, it was read the Second Time and referred to the Senate Committee on Tertiary Institutions and TETFund for further legislative action and to report back its recommendations.

Objectives of the Bill:

The objectives of the Bill are as follows: Firstly to amend the existing legislation with a view to removing the perception of the public about the University in respect of the word correspondence, which gives the impression that the University is not a full time University and as such seen as part time. These two concepts correspondence and part-time significantly affect the way the public views the programs run by the University. This has been the reason why the Law Graduates of the School are not admitted into the Nigerian Law School as well as the reason for the non inclusion of the graduates of the University into the National Youth Service Corps Scheme.

Secondly, to include ICT as another means of providing tuition towards the advancement of learning throughout Nigeria. The National Open University as currently run, depends critically on virtual learning and students individual research. Hence the need for improvement and introduction of helpful learning tools as presented by ICT. This will further deal with the challenge of limited access in the Tertiary Education Sector. Equally there is need to bring the National Open University of Nigeria Act in line with the requirements of the Universities Miscellaneous Provisions (Amendment) Act 2012.

2.0 COMMITTEE'S CONSIDERATION OF THE BILL:

2.1 Methodology:

After the referral, the Committee held a series of meetings and agreed on the following legislative framework:

- (a) To consult widely on the justifications for the passage of the Bill; and
- (b) To conduct a Public Hearing

2.2 Public Hearing

The Committee conduct a Public Hearing on Monday, 16th January, 2017 in order to hear the viewpoints of stakeholders and the general public. This is in addition to a wide range of consultations and interactive sessions with stakeholders. The Committee placed advertisements in prints and electronic media whereby it invited memoranda from stakeholders with a view to sensitising them on the provisions of the Bill ahead of the public hearing.

COMMITTEE'S RECOMMENDATIONS:

The Committee recommendations are as outlined in the attached tabular report.

3.0 CONCLUSION:

The suggested amendments reflect the content of the laws establishing universities, the introduction of a platform to provide online tuition as a method of instruction will not only ease the troubles associated with the traditional ways of teaching, but will also bring about efficiency, convenience, flexibility and effectiveness in the Open University System. This amendment is apt, timely and in tune with the global best practices. It will reposition the Open University for better service delivery and help in producing quality graduates for the Nigerian society.

Among other things, the passage of this amendment Bill will relieve the University of the encumbrances inherent in the subsisting Act.

The Committee expresses profound gratitude to the entire Senate for the opportunity it was given to provide legal repositioning for the University.

aforesaid, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directions of the Council. (2) The Vice-Chancellor may, in a case of misconduct by a member of the staff which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor is prejudicial to the interest of the University, suspend such member and any such suspension shall forthwith be reported to the Council. (3) For good cause, any member of staff may be suspended from his duties or his appointment may be terminated by Council; and for the purposes of this subsection "good cause" means: (a) conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office; (b) any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice, considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office; (c) conduct of a scandalous or other disgraceful nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to hold his office; (d) conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the functions of his office or to comply with the terms and conditions of his service. (4) Any person suspended pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section, shall be on half pay and the Council shall, before the expiration of a period of three months after the date of suspension, consider the case against that person and come to a decision as to: (a) whether to continue such person's suspension and if so, on what terms (including the proportion of his emoluments to be paid to him);		Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act.

(b) whether to reinstate such person, in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments to him with effect from the date of suspension; (c) whether to terminate the appointment of the person concerned, in which case such a person shall not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension; (d) whether to take such lesser disciplinary action against such person (including the restoration of such proportion of his emoluments that might have been withheld), as the Council may determine, and in any case where the Council, pursuant to this section, decides to continue a person's suspension or decides to take further disciplinary action against a person, the Council shall, before the expiration of a period of three months from such decision, come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning any such person. (5) It shall be the duty of the person by whom an instrument of removal is signed in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section, to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served, as soon as reasonably practicable, on the person to whom it relates. (6) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall: (a) apply to any directive given by the Visitor, in consequence of any visitation; or (b) prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of other category of workers of the University, as may be prescribed.		Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act.
15. Removal of examiners: (1) If, on the recommendation of the Senate, it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that a person appointed as an examiner for any examination of the University ought to be removed from his office or appointment, then, except in such case as may be prescribed, he may, after affording the examiner an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter to the Vice-Chancellor, remove the examiner from the		15. appointment by an instrument in writing signed by the Vice-Chancellor and, subject to the provisions of regulations made in pursuance of section 6 (5) of this Act, the Vice-Chancellor may, on the recommendation of the Senate, appoint an appropriate person as examiner in the place of the examiner removed in pursuance of this subsection. (2) It shall be the duty of the Vice-Chancellor, on signing an instrument of removal in pursuance of this section, to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served, as soon as reasonably practicable, on the person to which it relates.		Retained as in the Principal Act.
16. Discipline of students: (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that any student of the University has been guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may, without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by statute or regulations, direct: (a) that the student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the University or make use of such facilities of the University as may be so specified; or (b) that the activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified; (c) that the student be expelled from the University. (2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1) (c) of this section in respect of any student, the student may, within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal against the direction to the Council; and where such an appeal is brought, the Council shall, after causing such inquiry to be made in the matter as the Council considers just, either confirm or set aside the direction or modify it in such manner as the Council thinks fit. (3) The fact that an appeal against a direction is brought in pursuance of the last foregoing subsection, shall not affect the question of the direction while the appeal is pending.		16. (4) The Vice-Chancellor may delegate his powers under this section to a disciplinary board consisting of such members of the University as he may nominate. (5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of a student's activities at the University, otherwise than on the ground of misconduct. (6) It is hereby declared that a direction under subsection (1) (a) of this section may be combined with a direction under subsection (1) (b) of this section.		Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act. Retained as in the Principal Act.
Miscellaneous and Supplementary
17. Exclusion of discrimination on account of race, religion, etc. No person shall be required to satisfy requirements as to any of the following matters, that is to say, race (including ethnic grouping), sex, place of birth or of family origin, or religious or political persuasion as a condition of becoming or continuing to be a student at the University, the holder of any degree of the University or of any appointment or employment at the University, of a member of anybody established by virtue of this Act; and no person shall be subjected to any disadvantage or accorded any advantage in relation to the University, by reference to any of these matters: Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the University from imposing any disability or restriction on any of the aforementioned persons where such person willfully refuses or fails on grounds of religious belief to undertake any duty generally and uniformly imposed on all such persons or any group of them, which duty, having regard to its nature and the special circumstances pertaining thereto, is in the opinion of the University reasonably justifiable in the national interest.		17.
