5. Matter of Urgent Public Importance:

Rising on Rules 42 and 52, Senator Duro S. Faseyi (Ekiti North) drew the attention of the Senate on the need for equity and transparency in the electioneering process in Osun State re-run election. He sought and obtained the leave of the Senate to present the matter forthwith:

The Senate;

recalls that the demise of Distinguished Senator Isiaka Adeleke on 23rd April 2017 created a vacuum in the Senate as the people of Osun West Senatorial District were left without representation;

notes that Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC) in line with 2010 Electoral Act and other extant law, INEC has fixed a bye-election for the 8th of July, 2017;

notes with dismay the series of allegations and counter allegations and verbal attacks over plans to manipulate the outcome of the July 8th Osun West Senatorial bye-Election and the consequent tension this ugly development has generated in the polity and the imminent breakdown of law and order;

aware that Osun West indigenes are desirous of a free and fair bye-Election where their votes will count; and convinced that INEC has the capacity to deliver a credible Bye-Elections.

Accordingly resolves to:

- (i) urge Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC) to ensure that equity, fairness and transparency are the hallmark and foundation of the forthcoming Senatorial bye-elections in Osun State;
- (ii) warn all voters, leaders, stakeholders, and participants in the electoral process not to engage in any electoral violence and malpractice so as not to incur the wrath of the law as provided for in the Electoral Act and other extant laws;
- (iii) urge INEC, Nigerian Police, Directorate of State Security (DSS), Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) and all other relevant agencies to offer the highest level of security and transparency during the voting exercise and ensure that any persons involved in electoral offences are apprehended and prosecuted; and
- (iv) call on the indigenes of the Osun West Senatorial District to come out to exercise their right to vote.

Debate:

Proposed Resolution (i):

Question: That the Senate do urge Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC) to ensure that equity, fairness and transparency are the hallmark and foundation of the forthcoming Senatorial bye-elections in Osun State — Agreed to.

- (1) If it appears to the Council that there are reasons for believing that any person employed as a member of the academic or administrative or technical staff of the University, other than the Vice-Chancellor, should be removed from his office or employment on the ground of misconduct or of inability to perform the functions of his office or employment, the Council shall —
 - (a) give notice of those reasons to the person in question;
 - (b) afford him an opportunity of making representations in person on the matter to the Council; and
 - (c) if he or any three members of the Council so request within the period of one month, beginning with the date of the notice, make arrangements —
 - (i) for a joint committee of the Council and the Senate to investigate the matter and to report on it to the Council; and
 - (ii) for the person in question to be afforded an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by the investigating committee with respect to the matter, and if the Council, after considering the report of the investigating committee, is satisfied that the person in question should be removed as aforesaid, the Council may so remove him by an instrument in writing signed on the directions of the Council.
- (2) The Vice-Chancellor may, in a case of misconduct by a member of the staff which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor is prejudicial to the interest of the University, suspend such member and any such suspension shall forthwith be reported to the Council.
- (3) For good cause, any member of staff may be suspended from his duties or his appointment may be terminated by Council; and for the purposes of this subsection "good cause" means —

- (a) conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the discharge of the functions of his office;
 - (b) any physical or mental incapacity which the Council, after obtaining medical advice, considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his office;
 - (c) conduct of a scandalous or other disgraceful nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to hold his office;
 - (d) conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to discharge the functions of his office or to comply with the terms and conditions of his service.
- (4) Any person suspended pursuant to subsection (2) or (3) of this section, shall be on half pay and the Council shall, before the expiration of a period of three months after the date of suspension, consider the case against that person and come to a decision as to —
- (a) whether to continue such person's suspension and if so, on what terms (including the proportion of his emoluments to be paid to him);
 - (b) whether to reinstate such person, in which case the Council shall restore his full emoluments to him with effect from the date of suspension;
 - (c) whether to terminate the appointment of the person concerned, in which case such a person shall not be entitled to the proportion of his emoluments withheld during the period of suspension;
 - (d) whether to take such lesser disciplinary action against such person (including the restoration of such proportion of his emoluments that might have been withheld), as the Council may determine, and in any case where the Council, pursuant to this section, decides to continue a person's suspension or decides to take further disciplinary action against a person, the Council shall, before the expiration of a period of three months from such decision, come to a final determination in respect of the case concerning any such person.
- (5) It shall be the duty of the person by whom an instrument of removal is signed in pursuance of subsection (1) of this section, to use his best endeavours to cause a copy of the instrument to be served, as soon as reasonably practicable, on the person to whom it relates.
- (6) Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this section shall —
- (a) apply to any directive given by the Visitor, in consequence of any visitation; or
 - (b) prevent the Council from making regulations for the discipline of other category of workers of the University, as may be prescribed.

Committee's Recommendation:

That the provision in Clause 14 be retained (Senator Barau I. Jibrin — Kano North) — Agreed to.

Clause 16: Discipline of students.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where it appears to the Vice-Chancellor that any student of the University has been guilty of misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor may, without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by statute or regulations, direct—
 - (a) that the student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the University or make use of such facilities of the University as may be so specified; or
 - (b) that the activities of the student shall, during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified;
 - (c) that the student be expelled from the University.
- (2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1) (c) of this section in respect of any student, the student may, within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, appeal against the direction to the Council; and where such an appeal is brought, the Council shall, after causing such inquiry to be made in the matter as the Council considers just, either confirm or set aside the direction or modify it in such manner as the Council thinks fit.
- (3) The fact that an appeal against a direction is brought in pursuance of the last foregoing subsection, shall not affect the question of the direction while the appeal is pending.

- (4) The Vice-Chancellor may delegate his powers under this section to a disciplinary board consisting of such members of the University as he may nominate.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the restriction or termination of a student's activities at the University, otherwise than on the ground of misconduct.
- (6) It is hereby declared that a direction under subsection (1) (a) of this section may be combined with a direction under subsection (1) (b) of this section.

 - (b) the names of the persons who are members of Congregation during the particular period, shall be conclusive evidence of that number or, as the case may be, of the names of those persons.
- (5) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this article, Congregation may regulate its own procedure.
- (6) Congregation shall be entitled to express, by resolution or otherwise, its opinion on all matters affecting the interest and welfare of the University and shall have such other functions, in addition to the functions of electing a member of the Council, as may be provided by statute or regulations.

General Assembly.

- 5. (1) The General Assembly shall consist of —
 - (a) the Vice-Chancellor and the Deputy Vice-Chancellors;
 - (b) all Professors and Heads of departments;

- (c) the Registrar;
 - (d) the Bursar;
 - (e) one academic staff representative of each faculty; and
 - (f) five students from each faculty, appointed by the Dean on a departmentally representative basis.
- (2) Subject to section 4 of the Act, the Vice-Chancellor shall be the chairman at all meetings of the General Assembly when he is present, and in his absence, a Deputy Vice-Chancellor shall be the chairman at the meeting.
 - (3) The quorum of the General Assembly shall be one third (or the whole number nearest to one third) of the total number of members of the general assembly, provided that no less than five students are present.
 - (4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this article, the General Assembly may regulate its own procedure.
 - (5) The General Assembly shall be entitled to express, by resolution or otherwise, opinion on all matters affecting the interest and welfare of students and shall have such other functions, in addition to the function of electing a member of the Council, as may be provided by statute or regulations.

Convocation.

5. (1) Convocation shall consist of —
- (a) the officers of the University mentioned in the First Schedule to the Act;
 - (b) all teachers within the meaning of the Act; and
 - (c) all other persons whose names are registered in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph.
- (2) A person shall be entitled to have his name registered as a member of Convocation if—
- (a) he is either a graduate of the University or a person satisfying such requirements as may be prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; and
 - (b) he applies for the registration of his name in the prescribed manner and pays the prescribed fees, and regulations shall provide for the establishment and maintenance of a register, for the purposes of this paragraph and, subject to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, may provide for the payment from time to time of further fees by persons whose names are on the register and for the removal from the register of the name of any person who fails to pay those fees.
- (3) The person responsible for maintaining the register shall, without the payment of any fees, ensure that the names of all persons who are for the time being members of Convocation by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) (a) or (b) of this paragraph, are entered and retained on the register.
- (4) A person who reasonably claims that he is entitled to have his name on the register, shall be entitled on demand to inspect the register or a copy of the register at the principal office of the University at all reasonable times.

- (5) The register shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence that any person named therein is, and that any person not named therein is not, a member of Convocation; but for the purposes of ascertaining whether a particular person was such a member on a particular date, any entries in and deletions from the register made on or after that date, shall be disregarded.
- (6) The quorum of Convocation shall be fifty or one third (or the whole number nearest to one third) of the total number of members of Convocation, whichever is less.
- (7) Subject to section 4 of the Act, the Chancellor shall be chairman at all meetings of Convocation when he is present, and in his absence, the Vice-Chancellor shall be the chairman at the meeting.
- (8) Convocation shall have such functions, in addition to the function of appointing a member of the Council, as may be provided by statute.

6. Organisation of faculties and branches thereof.

Each faculty shall be divided into such number of branches as may be prescribed.

Faculty Boards.

- 7. (1) There shall be established in respect of each faculty, a Faculty Board which, subject to the provisions of this statute, and subject to the directions of the Vice-Chancellor, shall —

 - (a) the Vice-Chancellor;
 - (b) the Dean;
 - (c) the persons severally in charge of the branches of the faculty;
 - (d) such of the teachers assigned to the faculty and having the prescribed qualifications, as the board may determine; and
 - (e) such persons, whether or not members of the University, as the Board may determine with the general or special approval of the Senate.
- (3) The quorum of the Board shall be eight or one quarter (whichever is greater) of the members for the time being of the Board; and subject to the provisions of this statute and to any provision made by regulations in that behalf, the Board may regulate its own procedure.
- (4) In the conduct of examinations connected with the subjects assigned to the faculty, each Faculty Board shall make adequate arrangement for the correct identification of candidates presenting themselves for the examinations.

Deans of faculties.

8. (1) The Board of each Faculty shall at a meeting in the third term of any academic year in which the term of office of the Dean expires, nominate one of its members, being a senior academic staff not below the rank of a senior lecturer and who is or has been a head of department, for appointment by the Senate as Dean of the faculty. The person so appointed shall act as Dean of the faculty and chairman at all meetings of the Faculty Board when he is present and shall be a member of all committees and other Boards appointed by the faculty.
- (2) The Dean shall hold office for two years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further period of two years, after which he shall not be eligible for re-appointment, until two years have elapsed.
- (3) The Dean of a faculty shall exercise general superintendence over the academic and administrative affairs of the faculty. It shall be the function of the Dean to present to Convocation for the conferment of degrees persons who have qualified for the degrees of the University at examinations held in the branches of learning for which responsibility is allocated to that faculty.
- (4) There shall be a committee to be known as the Committee of Deans, consisting of all the Deans of the several faculties and that committee shall advise the Vice-Chancellor on all academic matters and on particular matter referred to the University Council by the Senate.
- (5) The Dean of a faculty may be removed from office for good cause by the Faculty Board, after a vote would have been taken at a meeting of the Board, and in the event of a vacancy occurring following the removal of a Dean, an acting Dean may be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, provided that at the next Faculty Board meeting, an election shall be held for a new Dean.
- (6) In this article, "good cause" has the same meaning as in section 14 (3) of the Act.

Selection of Certain Principal Officers.

9. (1) When a vacancy occurs in the office of a Deputy Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar, Bursar, Librarian or Director of Works, a selection board shall be constituted by the Council and shall consist of —
- (a) the Pro-Chancellor;
 - (b) the Vice-Chancellor;
 - (c) two members appointed by the Council, not being members of the Senate; and
 - (d) two members appointed by the Senate.
- (2) The Selection Board shall, after making such inquiries as it thinks fit, recommend a candidate to the Council for appointment to the vacant office; and after considering the recommendation of the board, the Council may make an appointment to that office.

Creation of academic posts.

10. Recommendation for the creation of posts other than those mentioned in article 10 of this statute, shall be made by the Senate to the Council through the finance and general purposes committee.

Appointment of academic staff.

11. Subject to the Act and the statutes, the filling of vacancies in academic posts (including newly created ones), shall be as prescribed from time to time by the Senate.

Appointment of administrative and technical staff.

12. (1) The administrative and technical staff of the University, other than those mentioned in article 10 of this statute, shall be appointed by the Council or on its behalf by the Vice-Chancellor in accordance with any delegation of powers made by the Council in that behalf.
- (2) In the case of administrative or technical staff who have close and important contact with the academic staff, there shall be Senate participation in the process of selection.
