The Senate

Notes with concern that multinational and Nigerian oil and gas companies have over the years been operating from their respective operational bases until militancy and insecurity in the host communities in the Niger Delta became the order of the day;

Also notes that the reason proffered by the oil and gas companies for not relocating to their host communities has always been due to insecurity and hostilities in the host communities;

Aware that operating outside the host communities and operational base is the reason for the high cost of production which has been the bane of the country’s oil and gas industry, militating against maximum revenue from crude oil and gas sales to the Federation Account;

Recalls that this high cost of production has been one of the most contentious elements of our petroleum industry value chain;

Convinced that the recent passage and signing into law of the Petroleum Industry Act, 2021 (PIA) by the National Assembly and the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria respectively, is a major milestone towards the restoration of a lasting peace in the host communities;

Further convinced that the Petroleum Industry Act, 2021 now places certain responsibilities on the security, peace and safety of oil and gas infrastructure on the host communities to safeguard and ensure peaceful co-existence between oil and gas companies and their host communities;

Further convinced that is an opportunity to restore, recover and rehabilitate the massive and huge infrastructural facilities abandoned by the various oil and gas companies in their various operational bases to ensure their full utilization; and

Assured that the relocation of these companies to their host communities will further boost development in those areas and enhance the corporate social relationship and strengthen our collective resolve to considerably reduce the contentious cost of production and ensure adequate returns to the federation account.

Accordingly resolves to:

Mandate its Committees on Petroleum Resources Upstream; Downstream Petroleum Sector and Gas to liaise with the Ministry of Petroleum Resources and the Presidential Implementation Committee on the Petroleum Industry Act (PIA), to facilitate the relocation of the oil and gas companies in Nigeria to their various operational bases to ensure their smooth operations.

2. Urgent need to conduct investigation on allegation of Fake Covid-19 Test Results being used to defraud Nigerians in Ghana and the obtainment of Fake Covid-19 Vaccination Cards.

Sen. Apiafi, Betty Jocelyn (Rivers West)

Recall that the COVID-19 infection declared as a pandemic by the World Health Organization (WHO) in February 2020 is still ravaging the world;

Aware that in the absence of a definitive cure for the COVID-19 infection, the main stance of management are the COVID-19 vaccinations and the observance of non-pharmaceutical prevention methods; use of hand sanitizers/hand washing, use of face mask and social distancing;

Aware also that in the early stages of the pandemic the socio-economic life in many countries is shut down due to the consequence of closure of borders and air travels;

Further aware that with the improved understanding of the epidemiology of the disease, countries opened up their borders and economy with the enforcement of compliance to negative COVID-19 testing and various quarantine conditions instituted by the countries;

Notes that while the global roll-out of COVID-19 vaccinations continues to accelerate, it's worth remembering that only around 1% of the world's population have received their full course of injections. Billions are still waiting for their first dose, which inevitably leads those people to question exactly when they will get it. Especially as plans are being made internationally to allow those that have been vaccinated, or can prove they have had a recent negative test, the freedom to travel to other countries, attend large-scale events, take a new job, and more;

Notes also that there's a strong and growing demand for vaccinations and test results because of the greater freedoms they will give to people. Also, there will always be people who don't want to wait for their official vaccination, or for an official negative test result - and shady people willing to service that demand;

Further notes that there is a serious allegation that the Ghanaian authorities are diagnosing Nigerians who travel to their country of testing positive for Covid even after testing Negative in Nigeria;

Observes that the Ghanaian Authorities, usually, commit Nigerians who visit their country to isolation for two weeks and are made to pay about seventy thousand Nigeria Naira per day;

Observes also that this allegation was exposed following a visit by a Nigerian artiste, Bella Shmuda, who was told in Ghana that he had Covid-19 even after testing negative at a Nigerian facility in Nigeria. He rejected the result and insisted that it was a fake result. He was kicked out of Ghana by the authorities and proceeds to United States, where his test result on arrival came out negative;

Worried that Nigerians travelling to Ghana or through Ghana lamented that they are made to pay almost one million naira while in isolation;

Further worried that most of the Nigerians travelling to Ghana or through Ghana have alleged that the Ghanaian authorities have made them targets for the purpose of making money;

Concerned that if this allegation is not properly investigated and addressed, the exploitation will continue thereby unlawfully taking away the resources of Nigerians in this global economic recession; and

Worried that if the allegation of people obtaining and using fake COVID-19 vaccination cards to travel is not debunked, it may have negative consequence for Nigerians with genuine COVID-19 vaccination cards from travelling outside the country.

Accordingly resolves to:

Direct its Committees on Health (Secondary & Tertiary), Primary Health and Communicable Diseases and Foreign Affairs to conduct detailed investigations on the two allegations of fake COVID-19 test result being used to defraud Nigerians in Ghana and obtainment or use of fake COVID-19 vaccinations cards.
