(RECOVERY AND MANAGEMENT) ACT, 2022

ACT No. 16

AN ACT TO MAKE COMPREHENSIVE PROVISIONS FOR SEIZURE, CONFISCATION, FORFEITURE, AND MANAGEMENT OF PROPERTIES REASONABLY SUSPECTED TO HAVE BEEN DERIVED FROM UNLAWFUL ACTIVITIES ; AND FOR RELATED MATTERS.

[12th Day of May, 2022]

Commencement.

ENACTED by the National Assembly of the Federal Republic of Nigeria—

PART I—OBJECTIVES AND APPLICATION OF THIS ACT

1.—(1) The objectives of this Act are to—

Objectives.

(a) provide for an effective legal and institutional framework for the recovery and management of the proceeds of crime, benefits derived therein, instrumentality of unlawful activities, and unclaimed properties reasonably suspected to be proceeds of crime ;

(b) make provisions for the restraint, seizure, confiscation and forfeiture of property derived from unlawful activities and any instrumentalities used or intended to be used in the commission of such unlawful activities ;

(c) make provisions for non-conviction based procedure for the recovery of proceeds of crime ;

(d) strengthen the criminal confiscation procedure by ensuring that the total benefit from a person's criminal activity is calculated and an equivalent amount, where recoverable, is confiscated on behalf of the Federal Government ;

(e) ensure that the relevant organisations establish the Proceeds of Crime (Management) Directorate to carry out the functions conferred on it under this Act ;

(f) strengthen collaboration among the relevant organisations in tracing and forfeiting properties reasonably suspected to be proceeds of unlawful activity through non-conviction based forfeiture proceedings ; and

(g) make provisions for the handover, management and disposal of properties forfeited to the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

2. The provisions of this Act apply to—

Application.

(a) detection, identification, investigation, and recovery of realisable assets and the proceeds and instrumentalities of unlawful activity by relevant organisations ;

(b) orders and directives by the Court to support the detection, recovery and preservation of the proceeds and instrumentalities of unlawful activity and realisable properties by relevant organisations ;

(c) confiscation orders to recover a sum equivalent to the amount a convicted person has acquired from the offences charged and related offences, including accrued benefits ;

(d) management of the recovered assets and property by the relevant organisation under this Act ; and

(e) training and certification of asset recovery officers, asset recovery agents, auctioneers, bankers, consultants and judicial officers.

PART II—PROCEEDS OF CRIME MANAGEMENT DIRECTORATE

Establishment and functions of the Proceeds of Crime Management Directorate in the relevant organisation.

3. The relevant organisation shall—

(a) enforce and administer the provisions of this Act ;

(b) establish Proceeds of Crime (Management) Directorate which shall—

(i) take over and assume responsibility for the proper and effective management of properties forfeited to the Federal Government of Nigeria,

(ii) set standards to be applied in the handling of properties forfeited to the Federal Government of Nigeria,

(iii) ensure accountability in the management of all properties forfeited to the Federal Government of Nigeria,

(iv) ensure the effective administration of properties forfeited to the Federal Government of Nigeria,

(v) recommend training on the management of the proceeds of crime and related matters, and

(vi) appoint private asset managers and ensure that the assets managers are properly bonded and insured ;

(c) establish and maintain—

(i) assets management and disposal systems, and

(ii) lists of approved auctioneers and valuers, and issue instructions for the realisation or security of assets whilst ensuring fair process ;

(d) establish and maintain a central database of —

(i) all seized and recovered assets by the relevant organisation, and

(ii) asset managers, auctioneers, insurers, and other necessary support services ;

(e) work with the Federal Ministry of Justice to negotiate the return and management of all assets seized from foreign countries on behalf of the Federal or State Governments, or any other victim or for the benefit of Nigerians ;

(f) maintain statistics as to amounts recovered and managed ;

(g) collaborate with other government bodies outside Nigeria that are carrying on functions, wholly or in part similar to it ;

(h) maintain an accurate inventory of all assets, with records of their location, value, condition, and description of their status in relation to any proceedings before the Court ;

(i) recommend reparations to victims of crime, where proceeds have been recovered ; and

(j) carry out such other necessary or expedient functions as may be assigned to it by the head of the relevant organisation to ensure the efficient performance of its functions under this Act.

4. The relevant organisation may subject to the provisions of this Act, execute such contracts or other arrangements, as it considers necessary and, in particular—

Powers of the relevant organisation.

(a) engage contractors, asset managers, auctioneers, accountants, consultants, brokerage companies, investment advisers, financial investigators and other experts for the effective performance of its functions under this Act ;

(b) dispose assets subject to forfeiture order of a Court that—

(i) are perishable or susceptible to deterioration, or

(ii) may be excessively burdensome or expensive to maintain or administer, leading to a reduction of the recoverable amount ;

(c) do anything it considers appropriate for facilitating, or which is incidental to the performance of its functions.

5.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Directorate shall—

(a) be informed of any property seized in the course of investigation, within 14 days or soon thereafter for the purpose of documentation ;

(b) take possession of property subject to forfeiture order from any person or entity in possession or entitled to possession of the property, and may appoint a receiver for that purpose ; and

(c) subject to the specific orders of the Court, transfer for its effective management any forfeited property within 30 days.

Role of the Directorate in the process of management of forfeited properties.

(2) Properties forfeited shall be vested in the relevant organisation for and on behalf of the Federal Government of Nigeria.

PART III—RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE RELEVANT ORGANISATION AND OTHER ENTITIES

Co-operation between relevant organisation and other entities.

6.—(1) In the performance of their functions and exercise of their powers under this Act, the relevant organisation shall cooperate with other relevant entities.

(2) In this section, “other relevant entities” includes any other institution or authority not listed as relevant organisation.

PART IV—NON-CONVICTION BASED RECOVERY OF THE PROCEEDS OF CRIME

Application
of this Part.

7. This Part applies to the recovery and forfeiture of proceeds of crime, instrumentality of unlawful activity, abandoned properties or unclaimed properties reasonably suspected to be proceeds of unlawful activity, without conviction.

Nature of proceedings
under this Part.

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act—

(a) proceedings under this Part shall be civil proceedings ; and

(b) the standard of proof required in proceedings under this Part shall be on a balance of probabilities.

(2) The rules or practice relating to hearsay evidence, given in furtherance of the proceeding is admissible.

Preservation
order.

9.—(1) A preservation order shall be granted by the Court to preserve property reasonably suspected to have been derived from unlawful activities and represents instrumentality of unlawful activity or unclaimed property.

(2) The relevant organisation may, by an ex parte application, apply to the Court for a preservation order restraining a person from dealing in any manner with any property, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in the order.

(3) The Court shall make an order under subsection (2), where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the property concerned—

(a) represents the proceeds of unlawful activity, whether they are—

(i) in the hands of the person who unlawfully acquired the property in the first instance, or

(ii) traced to any person to whom the property that represents the proceeds have been passed ;

(b) is involved in the facilitation of unlawful activity ; or

(c) is intended to be used to facilitate unlawful activity.

(4) Where further property has been acquired as a result or profits accruing from the proceeds of unlawful activity, that further property shall be treated as the proceeds of unlawful activity.

(5) Where property referred to in subsection (3) is comingled with other property, this section applies to the portion of the property, resulting from unlawful activity.

(6) The Court may make an ancillary order if —

(a) a person disposes of any property mentioned in subsection (3) ; and

(b) the person, who obtains the property disposed of, does so in good faith, for value and without notice that it was property mentioned in subsection (3).

(7) A Court making a preservation order may at the same time make any other ancillary orders that it considers appropriate for the proper, fair and effective execution of the preservation order.

(8) Upon the grant of a preservation order by the Court, the Directorate of the relevant organisation shall take possession of the property from any person in possession or entitled to possession of the property and may appoint a receiver in order to do so.

10.—(1) The Court in making a preservation order, may direct the relevant organisation to within 14 days after the making of the order notify any interested party of the preservation order by publishing same in any widely circulating national newspaper.

Notice of
preservation
order.

(2) A person, who has an interest in any property that is subject to a preservation order may give notice of his intention to—

(a) oppose the making of the preservation order ; or

(b) apply for an order excluding his interest in the property concerned from the operation of the preservation order.

(3) A notice under subsection (2) shall be filed and served on the relevant organisation within 14 days of the publication of preservation order.

(4) A notice given under subsection (2) shall contain full particulars of the address for the service of documents concerning further proceedings under this Part, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit stating the—

(a) full particulars of the identity of a person entering appearance ;

(b) nature and extent of his interest in the property concerned ; and

(c) reasons which the person intends to rely on in opposing the preservation order or applying for the exclusion of his interest from the operation of the preservation order.

Duration of a Preservation Order.	11. A preservation order shall, subject to section 24 of this Act, expire 60 days after the date on which it was made, unless— (a) there is an application for a forfeiture order pending before the Court in respect of the property subject to the preservation order ; (b) there is an unsatisfied forfeiture order in force, in relation to the property subject to the preservation order ; or (c) the preservation order is rescinded before the expiration of that period.
Renewal of preservation order.	12.—(1) The relevant organisation may apply to the Court that granted a preservation order under this Act for a renewal of the order, where— (a) the preservation order has not been set aside ; and (b) there are reasonable grounds to grant the renewal. (2) The cumulative period of renewals shall not exceed 180 days.
Disposal of property subject to preservation order.	13.—(1) Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that a property, which is subject to a preservation order, may have its value diminished, or be disposed of, destroyed, or damaged, removed contrary to the order or may deteriorate in terms of quality or utility, the relevant organisation shall promptly apply to the Court ex-parte for an order to sell the property at the prevailing market value. (2) The proceeds from the sale of any property under subsection (1) shall be invested in the Central Bank of Nigeria treasury bills, pending the determination of the proceedings. (3) Where a preservation order is set aside or the sales revoked by order of Court, the relevant organisation shall, after exercising its right of appeal, pay to the owner of the property the proceeds of sales together with accrued interest where applicable.
Appointment of asset manager for property subject to a preservation order.	14.—(1) Where the Court has made a preservation order, it may direct the relevant organisation to— (a) appoint an asset manager to— (i) assume control of the property, (ii) administer the property and do any act necessary for that purpose, (iii) carry on the business or undertaking, where the property is an on-going business or undertaking, with due regard to any applicable law, (iv) sell or otherwise dispose of the property, in the case of property that is perishable, or liable to deterioration, decay or injury by being detained in custody, and

(v) sell or otherwise dispose of the property where it is not economically viable to maintain ;

(b) order a person holding any property subject to a preservation order to surrender the property into the custody of the asset manager, immediately or within such period as the Court may determine ; and

(c) serve the preservation order on the relevant organisation for the purpose of documentation and accurate data management.

(2) Where any property subject to a preservation order is not surrendered within the period that has been determined under subsection (1) (b), an authorised officer of the relevant organisation may enter by force, if necessary, any premises, where he reasonably believes the property is situate, in order to search for and seize the property.

(3) Appointed asset managers may be accompanied by authorised officers of the relevant organisation or law enforcement officers as are reasonably required in order to effect entry into premises.

15.—(1) The Court making a preservation order may direct the appropriate land registration authority to place a restriction on the land register, in respect of the immovable property.

(2) An order of restriction made under subsection (1) may specify that the immovable property shall not, without the consent of the Court —

(a) be mortgaged or otherwise encumbered ;

(b) be attached or sold in execution ;

(c) vest in the official receiver concerned, when the estate of the owner of that immovable property is sequestrated ; and

(d) form part of the assets of any company or body corporate, where the owner of the immovable property is a company or other body corporate, which is being wound up.

(3) Subject to subsection (1), the registration authority shall—

(a) enter the restriction in its register and endorse the office copy of the title deed to that effect ; and

(b) endorse on the original of the title deed, when it is produced.

(4) The restriction referred to in subsection (3) (a) shall—

(a) be effective against any person, in whose favour a mortgage or other charge was registered, prior to the endorsement of the restriction on the title deed of the immovable property ; and

(b) lapse on the lawful transfer of ownership of the immovable property concerned.

Orders in respect of immovable property subject to a preservation order.

(5) A person affected by an order specified in subsection (1) may, at any time, upon showing good cause, apply for the rescission of the order.

Variation
and rescission
of order.

16. The Court that makes a preservation order—

(a) may, on application by the person affected by the order, vary the preservation order, authorise the seizure of the property concerned, or any other ancillary order, as it may deem appropriate ; or

(b) may rescind the preservation order when the proceedings against the defendant concerned are concluded in the person’s favour.

Application
for forfeiture
order.

17.—(1) Where a preservation order is in force and before the expiration of the stipulated time, the relevant organisation may apply to the Court by way of motion of notice for a forfeiture order against all or any part of the property that is subject to the preservation order.

(2) The relevant organisation shall give 14 days notice of an application under subsection (1) to every person who pursuant to the notice given under section 10 (1) of this Act had shown interest in the property sought to be forfeited.

(3) A person who pursuant to the notice given under section 10 (1) of this Act may, subject to compliance with section 10(2) and (3), appear at the hearing of the application under subsection (1) to —

(a) oppose the making of the order ; or

(b) apply for an order—

(i) excluding his interest in the property from the operation of the order, or

(ii) varying the operation of the order in respect of the property, and may adduce evidence at the hearing of the application.

(4) Where the Court grants the forfeiture order, the property referred to in subsection (1) shall be forfeited to the Federal Government of Nigeria.

Service of notice out of time.

18.—(1) Where a person for any reason, failed to serve notice under section 10 (2) of this Act, he may apply to the Court for leave to serve the notice out of time.

(2) An application under subsection (1) may be made before the application for a final forfeiture is heard by the Court.

(3) The Court may grant leave to an applicant referred to in subsection (1), to serve notice under section 10 (2) of this Act within the period which the Court deems appropriate, where the Court is satisfied on good cause shown that the applicant has—

- (a) sufficient reason for failing to serve notice under section 10 (2) ; and
- (b) an interest in the property that is subject to the preservation order.

(4) A notice served after leave has been obtained under this section shall—

(a) contain full particulars of the address of the person who served the notice for the delivery of documents concerning further proceedings under this Part ; and

(b) be accompanied by the affidavit referred to in section 10 (3) of this Act.

(5) Where the Court has granted leave for notice under section 10 (2) of this Act to be served out of time under this section, it may direct the applicant to pay any or all of the costs that have arisen or may arise as a result of the notice being served out of time.

19.—(1) Subject to section 22 of this Act, the Court shall make a forfeiture order under this Act where it finds on a balance of probabilities that the property concerned is reasonably suspected to—

Making of a forfeiture
order.

- (a) be proceeds of unlawful activity ;
- (b) represent whether directly or indirectly the proceeds of unlawful activity ;
- (c) be involved in the facilitation of unlawful activity ; or
- (d) be intentionally used for unlawful activity.

(2) The Court may—

- (a) where it makes a forfeiture order, or
- (b) at any time after making the order, make any ancillary order that it considers appropriate, including orders for and with respect to facilitating the transfer of property forfeited to the relevant organisation, on behalf of the Federal Government of Nigeria.

(3) The absence of a person whose interest in property may be affected by a forfeiture order shall not prevent the Court from making the order.

(4) The validity of an order under subsection (1) shall not be affected by the outcome of criminal proceedings or of an investigation with a view to instituting those proceedings, in respect of an offence with which the property concerned may be associated.

Effect of appeals on preservation or other ancillary orders.

20. A preservation order and any order authorising the seizure of the property concerned or other ancillary order that is in force at the time of any decision regarding the making of a forfeiture order under this Act shall remain in force pending the outcome of any appeal against the decision concerned.

Effect of forfeiture order.

21.—(1) With effect from the date when the Court makes a forfeiture order, the property subject to the order is forfeited to Federal Government of Nigeria.

(2) On a forfeiture order taking effect, the relevant organisation shall promptly handover to the Directorate, the forfeited property.

Fulfillment of forfeiture order

22.—(1) The Directorate of the relevant organisation shall, in accordance with the directions of the Court—

(a) deposit any money forfeited under this Act into the Confiscated and Forfeited Properties Account established under section 68 of this Act ; or

(b) dispose of the property forfeited by sale or any other means and deposit the proceeds of the sale or disposition into the said account.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any right or interest in forfeited property not exercisable by or transferable to the relevant organisation, shall expire and shall not revert to the person, who had possession, or was entitled to possession of the property immediately before the forfeiture order took effect.

(3) A person referred to in subsection (2) or any other person, who acts with or on behalf of the person—

(a) commits an offence, if he purchases or attempts to purchase the forfeited property ; and

(b) is liable on conviction to a fine of at least twice the value of the property sold.

(4) The expenses incurred in connection with the forfeiture and the sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance and custody of the property pending its disposition, advertisement, and the Court costs shall be defrayed out of the designated account.

Unlawful activities or conduct forming the basis of multiple orders.

23. The fact that a preservation order or a forfeiture order has been made on the basis of unlawful activity or conduct in which a specific person has been involved shall not prevent the making of another or other preservation orders or forfeiture orders on the basis of the same unlawful activity or conduct.

24.—(1) A notice authorised or required to be given to a person under this Part shall, in the case of a deceased person, be sufficiently given to the administrator or executor of the deceased person’s estate, or to a person acting in that capacity.

Application of this Part to deceased estates.

(2) A reference in this section to the property of a person shall, in the case of a deceased person, be a reference to property that the deceased person held immediately before his death.

(3) An order may be applied for and made under this section—

(a) in respect of property, which forms part of a deceased person’s estate ; and

(b) on evidence adduced concerning the activities of a deceased person.

25.—(1) Where a person has an interest in property, as a joint owner, his death after a preservation order is made in respect of the interest does not, while the order is in force, operate to vest the interest in the surviving joint owner or owners, and the preservation order shall continue to apply to the interest, as if the person had not died.

Effect of death of joint owner of property under a preservation order.

(2) A forfeiture order made in respect of the interest referred to in subsection (1) shall apply, as if the order took effect in relation to the interest immediately before the person died.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the interest in property where a preservation order ceases to apply to that interest without a forfeiture order being made in respect of that interest.

PART V—RECOVERY OF CASH

26.—(1) A designated officer may seize and detain any cash in the process of being moved within or outside Nigeria, where he has reasonable grounds to suspect that it—

Seizure and detention of cash.

(a) directly or indirectly represents proceeds of unlawful activity or is intended to be an instrumentality of an offence ; or

(b) is above the prescribed amount under the law and has not be declared to the appropriate authorities.

(2) In this Part—

(a) “cash” includes—

(i) notes and coins in any currency,

(ii) cheques of any kind, including travelers’ cheques,

(iii) bankers’ draft,

(iv) bearer bonds and bearer shares, and

(v) jewelries and gold, and

(b) “designated officer” means an officer of Nigeria Customs Service, National Drug Law Enforcement Agency, Economic and Financial Crimes Commission, Nigeria Police Force, Nigeria Immigration Service and officers of other relevant organisations.

Act No.
11,2011.
Cap. C45,
LFN, 2004.
Cap. F34,
LFN, 2004.

(3) The “prescribed amount” in this Part, means the equivalent amount in United States Dollar specified in the Money Laundering (Prohibition) Act, the Customs and Excise Management Act, Foreign Exchange (Monitoring and Miscellaneous) Provisions Act or in an order or regulations issued by the Attorney-General, in consultation with the Central Bank of Nigeria.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3), any amount of cash moved within or outside Nigeria in a currency other than United States Dollars shall be taken to be its United States Dollar equivalent, calculated in accordance with the prevailing exchange rate.

(5) The Court shall adopt summary proceedings under this Part.

Detention of seized cash.

27.—(1) Where the designated officer continues to have reasonable grounds for his suspicion, cash seized under section 26 of this Act may be detained initially for a period of seven days to enable the designated officer apply to the Court for an order to detain the cash.

(2) The period referred to in subsection (1) shall not include Saturdays and Sundays or any day which is a public holiday in Nigeria.

(3) The period for which the cash, or any part of it, may be detained may be extended by an order of the Court, but the order shall not authorise the detention of the cash, or any part of it, beyond three months, commencing from the date of the order.

(4) Subsequent orders for the continued detention of the cash may be made by the Court but no order shall authorise the further detention of the cash beyond a cumulative period of 12 months commencing from the date of the first order.

(5) An application for an order under subsections (3) and (4) may be made by a designated officer, and the Court may make the order, where satisfied, in relation to any cash to be further detained, that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the cash is—

(a) the proceeds of unlawful activity ; or

(b) intended to be an instrumentality of an offence and that—

(i) its continued detention is justified while its derivation is further investigated or consideration is given to bringing, in Nigeria or elsewhere, proceedings against any person for an offence with which the cash is connected, or

(ii) proceedings against a person for an offence with which the cash is connected have started and have not been concluded.

(6) Where cash is detained by virtue of subsection (5), the Court may direct its release if satisfied, on an application made by the person from whom it was seized that—

- (a) there are no justifiable grounds for the detention of the cash ; or
- (b) the grounds for the continued detention of the cash, as specified in subsection (5), cease to exist.

28.—(1) Where cash under section 27 of this Act—

(a) is detained, by officers of other relevant organisation, the Directorate shall be immediately notified within seven days, for purpose of documentation and the cash paid into the designated account of the relevant organisation ; or

(b) was seized under section 26 (1) of this Act, the relevant organisation shall, subject to subsection (2), release on an application made by the person from whom the cash was seized, the part of the cash to which the suspicion does not relate.

(2) Where—

(a) part of the cash, referred to in subsection (1) to which suspicion does not relate, may still be subject to a confiscation order, under Part VI of this Act, and

(b) an application for a restraint order, under Part VI of this Act in respect of a person, who has an interest in the cash has been made and refused, the relevant organisation may retain the cash in the designated account, until such time as a confiscation order is made in respect of the cash, or until an application made under this Act is granted by the Court.

29.—(1) This section applies where cash is detained under section 27 of this Act.

(2) The Court may direct the release of the whole or any part of detained cash, where satisfied on application by the person from whom the cash is seized, that the conditions in section 33 of this Act no longer exist in relation to the cash to be released.

(3) The relevant organisation may on the receipt of the order of the Court, under whose order the cash is detained, release the whole or part of the cash, where satisfied that its detention is no longer justified.

(4) Where the relevant organisation is dissatisfied with the order of release, it shall timeously lodge an appeal against the order.

(e) all property which, when it is transferred to a person referred to in paragraph (d) after the making of the restraint order, would be a realisable property ; and

(f) affected gifts made by the relevant person.

Affidavit in support of a restraint
order.

38.—(1) The application for a restraint order shall be supported by an affidavit made by the relevant organisation stating the belief that the property is of a type mentioned in section 37 of this Act.

(2) The Court shall not make a restraint order unless it is satisfied that the facts disclosed in the affidavit support the reasonable belief expressed by the relevant organisation.

(3) The Court may request the relevant organisation to provide additional information in support of the affidavit.

Notice of restraint
order.

39.—(1) Where the Court makes a restraint order, the relevant organisation where practicable shall give notice to—

(a) all persons affected by the restraint order ; and

(b) any other person who may be affected by an order to seize any property in furtherance of the restraint order.

(2) The notice referred to in subsection (1), where practicable shall—
(a) be served before or at the time of any seizure and in any other case after the order is obtained ; and

(b) contain—

(i) a copy of the restraint order,

(ii) the details of the issuing Court, and

(iii) the name and address of the applicant or other person to whom inquiries regarding the restraint order may be made.

40.—(1) A registration authority that keeps a register of properties of a particular kind shall, on application by the relevant organisation, register the particulars of a restraint order, as it affects the property in that register.

Registration of Restraint Orders.

(2) A person, who subsequently deals with the registered property shall be deemed—

(a) not to be acting in good faith for the purposes of section 39 of this act ; and

(b) to have notice of the restraint order for the purposes of section 37 of this act.

41.—(1) The relevant organisation may apply to the Court to set aside a disposition or dealing with a property that contravenes a restraint order, where that disposition or dealing was not—

Setting aside a disposition contravening a restraint order.

(a) for sufficient consideration ; or

(b) in favour of a person, who acted in good faith.

(2) The relevant organisation shall give to each party to the disposition or dealing, written notice of both the application and the grounds on which it seeks the setting aside of the disposition or dealing.

(3) The Court may set aside the disposition or dealing and declare the rights of any person, who acquired interest in the property void.

42. A person, who knowingly disposes of or otherwise deals with a property subject of a restraint order, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of at least N5,000,000 or imprisonment for a term of two years or both.

Contravening restraint orders.

43. The relevant organisation may, in order to prevent any realisable property from being disposed of or removed contrary to a restraint order, enter into any premises and seize the property if it has reasonable grounds to believe that the property will be disposed of or removed.

Seizure of property covered by a restraint order.

Cessation of restraint
orders.

44.—(1) A restraint order, in relation to one or more offences, ceases to be in force, if —

(a) within 28 days after the —

(i) charge or all the charges that relate to the restraint order are withdrawn, or

(ii) defendant is acquitted of the offence or all the offences with which he was charged ;

(b) the defendant’s conviction for the offence, or all the offences, of which he was convicted are quashed ;

(c) a restraint order covers property that is not realisable property including gifts within the meaning of section 50 (3) of this Act ;

(d) the Court is satisfied that the order was obtained by material suppression or misrepresentation of fact or by fraud ; and

(e) a confiscation order relates to that offence, those offences or related criminal activity and—

(i) the confiscation order is satisfied, or

(ii) the confiscation order is discharged.

(2) The period referred to in subsection (1) (b) shall not exceed 10 days, starting on the day on which the restraint order is made.

(3) Restraint orders remain in force until rescinded by the Court.

Making of confiscation
orders.

45.—(1) The Court may make a confiscation order requiring a person to pay to the relevant organisation for deposit into the designated account (in this Act referred to as “the Confiscated and Forfeited Properties Account”) as provided under this Act, an amount equal to the total proceeds of a person’s criminal activities, where available if—

(a) the person has been convicted of an offence ;

(b) the relevant organisation applies for the confiscation order ; and

(c) the Court is satisfied that the person has benefited from—

(i) that offence,

(ii) any other offence of which the person has been convicted at the same trial, and

(iii) any criminal activity which the Court finds to be sufficiently related to those offences.

(2) Where a person has been convicted of an offence and the relevant organisation fails to apply for a confiscation order under subsection (1) (b), the Court may, if it —

- (a) considers that it is in the public interest to do so ; and
- (b) direct the relevant organisation to apply for the confiscation order.

(3) An order made under this section against the person is—

(a) an order to make a payment to the relevant organisation of any amount that the Court considers appropriate ; and

(b) in addition to any punishment that the Court may impose in respect of the offence or offences that the person has been found guilty of.

(4) The Court may make any further orders as it may deem fit to ensure the effectiveness and fairness of the confiscation order.

(5) The amount that the Court may order a convicted person to pay to the relevant organisation under subsection (1) shall not exceed—

(a) the value of the convicted person’s proceeds from the offences or criminal activity, as determined by the Court, in accordance with the provisions of this Act ; or

(b) an amount, which in the Court’s opinion may be realised, if the Court is satisfied that the amount which might be realised as contemplated under this Act is less than the value referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(6) The Court hearing an application under this section may grant leave for extension of time for the application to be made, if it is satisfied that it may be in the interest of justice to allow the application.

46.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the value of a defendant’s proceeds of criminal activity is the sum of the values of the property, services, advantages, benefits and rewards received, retained or derived by him at any time, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, in connection with the criminal activity carried on by him or any other person connected with the criminal activity.

Value of proceeds of criminal activities.

(2) In determining the value of a convicted person’s proceeds of criminal activities, the Court shall—

(a) leave out of account, any property, where the Court has previously made a forfeiture order, which is proved to the satisfaction of the Court to have been the property, which the convicted person received in connection with the criminal activity carried on by him or any other person connected with the criminal activity ;

(b) where a confiscation order has previously been made against the convicted person, leave out of account those proceeds of criminal activities which are proved to the satisfaction of the Court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that confiscation order ; and

(c) ensure that the following are deducted—

(i) expenses or outgoings that the person incurred in relation to the criminal activity, or

(ii) the value of any benefit that the convicted person derives as agent for, or otherwise on behalf of, another person, whether the other person receives any of the benefits.

Amounts that may be realised.

47.—(1) The amount realisable at the time of the making of a confiscation order against a convicted person shall be the amount equal to the sum of the values, at that time, of all —

(a) realisable property held by the convicted person ; and

(b) less the sum of all priority obligations, where any, and which the Court may recognise for this purpose.

(2) The value of an affected gift at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order shall be—

(a) the value of the affected gift, at the time when the recipient received it, taking into account subsequent fluctuations in the value of money ; or

(b) where subsection (3) applies, the value mentioned in that subsection, whichever is the greater value.

(3) Where at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order, the recipient holds the property—

(a) other than cash, which he received, the value concerned shall be the value of the property at that time ; and

(b) which directly or indirectly represents the property which he received, the value concerned is the value of the property in his custody, in so far as it represents the property, which he received at the time.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (1), an obligation has priority, at the time of the making of the relevant confiscation order, if —

(a) it is an obligation of the convicted person, where he has been convicted by a Court of any offence to pay—

(i) a fine imposed before that time by the Court, or

(ii) any other amount under any resultant order made before that time by the Court ; and

(b) it is an obligation, where —

(i) the insolvent estate of the convicted person had at that time been made subject to any Court order ;

(ii) the convicted person is a company or other juristic person, where the company or juristic person is at that time being wound up ; or

(iii) it would be payable in pursuance of any secured or preferred claim against the insolvent estate or against such company or juristic person.

(5) The Court shall not determine the amounts realisable as contemplated in subsection (1), unless it has afforded all persons holding any interest in the property concerned an opportunity to make representations to it, in connection with the realisation of that property.

(6) Where there is no amount that may be realised, the Court may make an order for a nominal amount.

48.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), property is realisable under this Part, if the property is— Realisable property.

(a) held by the defendant concerned ;

(b) held by a person to whom that defendant has directly or indirectly made any affected gift ; and

(c) subject to the effective control of the defendant as provided in section 63 of this Act.

(2) Property shall not be realisable property where a forfeiture order is in force in respect of the property.

49.—(1) For the purpose of this Part, the value of property, other than money, in relation to a person holding the property of a convicted person is, where— Value of property.

(a) any other person holds an interest in the property, the market value of the property less the amount required to discharge any encumbrance on the property ; and

(b) no other person holds an interest in the property, the market value of the property.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a reference in this Part to the value at the time of payment or reward, is construed as a reference to—

(a) the value of the payment or reward at the time when the recipient received it, as adjusted to take into account subsequent fluctuations in the value of money ; or

(b) where subsection (3) applies, the value mentioned in that subsection, whichever is greater in value.

(3) Where, at the time referred to in subsection (2), the recipient holds—

(a) property, other than cash, which he received, the value concerned is the value of the property at that time ; or

(b) property which directly or indirectly represents the property which he received, the value concerned is the value of the property in his custody, if it represents the property which he received, at the relevant time.

Gifts made by a convicted
person.

50.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, a convicted person shall be deemed to have made a gift, where he has transferred any property to any other person directly or indirectly for a consideration, the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration supplied by the convicted person.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the gift which a convicted person is deemed to have made shall consist of that share in the property transferred by the convicted person that is equal to the difference between the value of that property as a whole and the consideration received by the convicted person in return.

(3) For the purpose of this Part, “affected gift” means any gift made by the convicted person concerned, where it was a gift of property—

(a) received by that convicted person in connection with an offence committed, or

(b) any part which directly or indirectly represented in that convicted person’s hands property received by him in connection with an offence committed by him or any other person, whether the gift was made before or after the commencement of this Act.

Procedure
where a person
absconds
or dies.

51.—(1) The Court may, on the application by the relevant organisation, inquire into any benefit that a person may have derived from an offence, where it is satisfied that—

(a) the person—

(i) had been charged with an offence,

(ii) had been convicted of any offence,

(iii) has had a restraint order made against him, or

(iv) can be tried for an offence on the grounds that sufficient evidence exists against him ;

(b) a warrant for arrest of the person had been issued and that the attendance of that person in Court cannot be secured after all reasonable steps were taken to execute that warrant ;

(c) the proceedings against the person cannot be resumed within a period of six months due to his continued absence ; and

(d) there are reasonable grounds to believe that a confiscation order may have been made against him but for his continued absence.

(2) Where a defendant, who has been convicted of an offence, dies before a confiscation order is made, the Court may, on the application by the relevant organisation, inquire into any benefit the person may have derived from that offence if the Court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a confiscation order would have been made against him, but for his death.

(3) The executor of the estate of the deceased is entitled to appear before the Court and make representations for purposes of the inquiry referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The Court in conducting an inquiry under this section may, where —

(a) the Court finds that the defendant or deceased referred to in subsections (1) or (2) has so benefited, make a confiscation order, and the provisions of this Part shall, with necessary modifications, apply to the making of the order ;

(b) an asset manager has not been appointed, in respect of any of the property concerned, direct the relevant organisation to appoint an asset manager in respect of realisable property ; and

(c) authorise the realisation of the property concerned.

(5) The Court shall not exercise its powers under subsection (4) (a) and (c), except it has afforded a person having any interest in the property concerned an opportunity to make representations to it in connection with the making of any order.

(6) Where a person, excluding a person specified in subsection (1) (a) (ii), against whom a confiscation order had been made under subsection(4) is subsequently tried and —

(a) convicted of one or more of the offences in respect of which the order had been made, the Court convicting him may make an appropriate order ; or

(b) acquitted of an offence in respect of which the order had been made, the Court acquitting him may make an appropriate order.

(7) The Court may make a determination against a person who absconded prior to an inquiry under this Act, and who is subject to a confiscation order where that person is subsequently brought before the Court.

(8) The Court making a determination contemplated in subsection (7) shall take into account any order made under subsection (4).

Enforcement of confiscation
orders.

52.—(1) An amount payable by a person to the relevant organisation under a confiscation order is a civil debt due by the person to the Federal Government of Nigeria.

(2) A confiscation order against a person may be enforced, as if it were an order made in civil proceedings instituted by the relevant organisation against a person to recover a debt due by that person to the Federal Government of Nigeria.

(3) A debt arising from the order is deemed to be a judgement debt.

(4) Where a confiscation order is made against a person after his death, this section shall have effect, as if the person had died on the day after the order was made.

(5) Where a person fails to satisfy any or part of a confiscation order made by the Court, the Court may order that the person against whom the order was made be committed to prison in addition to any other sentence prescribed under this Act.

Schedule.

(6) The period of imprisonment referred to under subsection (5) shall be as prescribed in the Schedule to this Act.

(7) An order to pay an amount under a confiscation order is due to be paid on the day that the confiscation order is made.

(8) Any sentence of imprisonment imposed under subsection (5) shall be served consecutively with any other sentence of imprisonment imposed, whether as a result of the proceedings in connection with which the confiscation order was made or any other proceedings.

PART VII—INVESTIGATION, SEARCH AND SEIZURE

Objectives
of this Part.

53. The objectives of this Part are to—

(a) safeguard the constitutional and individual's right to privacy in the conduct of investigation, search, and seizure ; and

(b) provide relevant organisation with investigative tools, including tools relating to—

(i) establishing the whereabouts and extent of a person's realisable assets,

(ii) identifying and recovery of property; or instrumentalities that may be subject to civil forfeiture and confiscation, and

(iii) a detained cash investigation.

54.—(1) This Part applies to all relevant organisations in the conduct of investigations, searches, and seizures in connection with the recovery of proceeds of unlawful activities under this Act and the relevant laws. Application of this Part.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other relevant law, a relevant organisation, shall comply with the provisions of this Part in the conduct of the matters referred to in subsection (1).

(3) For the purpose of this Part—

(a) “civil forfeiture investigation” is an investigation into whether property constitutes or is derived from the proceeds of unlawful activity or is the instrumentality of an offence ;

(b) “confiscation investigation” is an investigation into whether a person has benefited from a criminal activity ;

(c) “detained cash investigation” is an investigation contemplated in Part V of this Act ; and

(d) “civil recovery investigation” is an investigation under the Part IV of this Act.

55.—(1) This section applies if a person knows or suspects that a relevant organisation or its authorised officer is acting or proposing to act, in connection with— Actions detrimental to an investigation.

(a) a confiscation investigation ;

(b) a forfeiture investigation ;

(c) a civil recovery investigation ; or

(d) a detained cash investigation.

(2) The person commits an offence if —

(a) he makes a disclosure which is likely to prejudice the investigation, or

(b) he falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of, or causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of documents which are relevant to the investigation.

(3) A person does not commit an offence under subsection (2) (a) if the Court is satisfied that—

(a) he does not know or suspect that the disclosure is likely to prejudice the investigation, and

(b) the disclosure is made compliance with a requirement imposed under or by virtue of —

(i) this Act,

(ii) the Money Laundering (Prohibition) Act,

(iii) the Terrorism (Prevention) Act, or
